COUNTY JUDGE H. G. (Pete) Andrews was the Laymen's Day speaker Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

Besides the serious things he said to edify his hearers, he told an acquaintance who had two prominent business men as friends whom he emulated. Expressing his secret ambitions to another friend, back in the days when blood transfusions were really something of an experiment.

"I'd like to have some blood transfusions from two of my best friends," he requested. "First, I'd like to have the blood of Sam Spivens, who is gifted in making money; then I'd like to have some from George Pinchpenny, the banker, who knows how to save it when it's made."

CTHE OCCASION surely can not be spring, but a Hamlin woman, who asks that her name not be revealed, submits the following verses, which rate this or some other column somewhere:

Breath there a boy with heart so dead
Who never to himself hath said, "My best girl has gone back on me;
Her likes again I hope I never see; Now I'll not stay at home and mope,
But rather treat it as a joke!"

"I'll dress myself all in my best And step right out with all the rest,

And if, when I am on the street, She and I should chance to meet, I'll not greet her with a tearful sigh

But coolly, calmly pass her by."

And so he primped for all he's worth;

Dons hat and coat and sallies forth.

He scarce has walked a block, when, lo,

"Hi, Ted," she cried. And he, "My darling Flo!"

Then, arm in arm, they walk and walk,

And honed words make up their talk.

True love has had its way at last, And all the world goes smiling past!

CMORE QUIRKS from the column of Foxtail Johnson writing in the Sheep and Goat Raiser magazine published at San Angelo, included the following:

Young Pickax Posey got sent to jail for speedin' on the highway and the first day there got thrown into solitary for speedin' to the mess hall.

One guvernement bureau has relocated the center of the U. S. from Kansas to Dakota. Center of the universe is still the biggest moonshine still on Squawberry Flat, and another guvernement bureau is tryin' to locate that.

Yep. I'm savin' for Christmas. Already got lists put by of merchants in Beaver Slide and Kiote Hole that maybe ain't heard about my credit standin' in Hardscrabble.

Admiral Rickover needn't fret. The man that invented sin ain't never had no proper recognition. Maybe it's because we're too busy with his product to remember the inventor.

TEXAS MISS WINS SEWING CONTEST—These pretty blonde teen-agers were named junior home sewing champions of the nation in finals held in New York. Lynda Harper, 17, of Bellair (left), won the $1,000 first prize, and Christine Engstrom, 13, of Pasadena, California, (right) was the $500 second place winner.

Highway Projects In Area Underway

Despite colder and drizzling weather that has persisted the last few days in the Hamlin territory, two major highway projects have gotten underway by two contracting firms. Totaling nearly $900,000, the jobs include relocating and widening of Highway 92 from Hamlin to Stamford, and 9.4 miles of new farm-to-market road toward Old Glory. Workmen of A. & A. Contractors, Inc. have begun work of building drainage structures and preliminary dirt work on 17.177 miles of Highway 92 from Hamlin to the Anson-Stamford highway intersection south of Stamford.

Route of the widened highway is east along the present Highway 92 through the colored section and angling behind the Mac Sellers place to come alongside the old road near the Hamlin East Cemetery; then paralleling that route south of present paving for nine miles to the C. P. Amerson place, where the present route will be widened and repaved. Reason for relocation of the highway is that the main line of the Lone Star Gas Company, immediately south of the present route was within the bounds of the widened right-of-way. The gas firm wanted some $250,000 to move the line, which was deemed prohibitive by Jones County commissioners. Contractor has 180 working days to complete the project.

Drainage structures and preliminary dirt work has been started on the 9.4-mile stretch of Farm-to-Market Road 2481 from the Stonewall County line south to intersect Highway 92 near the oil mill. This is part of a new paved thoroughfare from Hamlin to Old Glory, part of which has already been completed. Cage Brothers of San Antonio, contractor on the job, has 115 days to complete the project.

Services are slated Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, and at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday. The public is invited.

Missionary to Colombia Builds Cafe And Tourist Center to Pay for Return

Ten years of service to natives of Colombia, South America, as medical missionaries left in the hearts of Rev. and Mrs. James C. Holden of the Boyd's Chapel community a desire to return to that far-away land and pick up where they left off several years ago.

And that yearning will be fulfilled, too, they have determined. The determination has grown as the couple and their family of six boys are working toward that return—within two years, they hope.

The Holdens, working among the natives in the interior of that almost savage land, where revolutions and tribe uprisings were the common thing many times, went as medical missionaries in 1939 and worked with the natives, with little assistance from the government, to help sponsor churches, medical and dental centers, schools and hospitals. No denominational board sponsored them, although they were reared in the Methodist church.

Their youngest son, who is 11 years old now, contracted polio two years ago while the Holdens were in Colorado, has prevented their returning to the mission field earlier. He is doing nicely, the Holdens report, responding readily to treatments. They have five other sons—aged 15, 17, 23, 25 and 28.

During their stay back in the United States they have spoken in hundreds of churches and shown movies and relics of that South American republic. Free-will donations have gone into a fund that will aid them in their work when they return to Colombia in 1960.

However, newest project of the Holdens to raise money for their continuing missionary task is the erection of a fort style tourist center on U. S. Highway 180 south of Hamlin, one mile west of Boyd's Chapel. They have recently completed the first in a series of projected buildings—a cafe, which has just been opened to the public. They are working on a gift shop, small museum and other structures in the project that will be operated for two years by Rev. and Mrs. Holden. Then some of the boys and their families will take over and permit the Holdens to return to Colombia. It is their sincere hope that fruits of the venture will pay the missionaries' expenses in South America.

Holden, who has resided in this area for many years, studied Spanish in high school and college with the intent to go to South America in mind. He married the former Rita Mae Carruth of Quanah, who also took Spanish in school.

Hamlin Librarian To Be Treasurer For District Group

Most City Businesses To Observe Holiday

Approximately 200 members of District II of the Tens-Age Library Association of Central West Texas met Saturday, October 25, in the Hamlin High School auditorium for their annual business meeting.

Hamlin was voted to hold the office of treasurer next year, and the district officer for next year gets to go to the Houston state meeting.

Hamlin schools will not observe the holidays, reports Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook, who points out that a lengthy holiday period will be taken for the Thanksgiving observance three weeks from this week-end.

BCD Offices Moved to Carmichael Building

Offices of the Hamlin Board of Community Development were this week moved from upstairs in the city hall building to the Carmichael building, just east of the post office on Southwest Third Street.

New quarters will make the BCD more accessible to callers on the civic organization and will permit better arrangement of office equipment, declares Mrs. Ned Moore, office secretary.

The banquet will be held in the Anson High School cafeteria instead of the previously announced grade school cafeteria.

4-H Achievement Banquet Set Saturday

Scores of Jones County 4-H Club boys and girls and interested leaders and adults are scheduled to attend the annual 4-H achievement awards banquet Saturday night at Anson.

The banquet will be held in the Anson High School cafeteria instead of the previously announced grade school cafeteria.

DePriest Principal at State School Meeting

Principal E. S. Morgan of DePriest Colored School in Hamlin last week attended the state principals' conference at Austin.

Guest speakers included Dr.

W. Edgar, state commissioner of education. Others from the agency participated in the sectional meetings.

Most negro principals from over the state attended the conference, Morgan reported.

Only one new citizen has been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. The new arrival is:

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Metcalf of Peacock who arrived October 26. After having his weight checked at seven pounds 12 ounces, he was given the name Scott Gilman.

Rough Harvest Methods Penalize Price to Farmer

Hamlin territory still will produce a good cotton crop—if the weather will give farmers a chance to gather it—although the quality of much of it will take price penalties, according to Watt Fletcher, manager of the Hamlin Farmers Cooperative Gin.

Fletcher estimated Wednesday that between one-fourth and one-third of the crop had been gathered. More than 2,400 bales had been ginned by the gins at Hamlin and Neinda at mid-week.

Shortage of transient labor in the area has been a factor in the late gathering of the crop. Fletcher pointed out, while rainy weather likewise had played an important role in the slow movement to the gins. Laborers have been scarce generally than usual this year, and reports of apparently whiter fields north and west of here have attracted the transients past the region. Farmers are paying $2 and $2.25 per 100 pounds for cotton delivered to the gins here.

Cotton that can be gathered by hand, making up probably 50 per cent of crop brought in thus far, has brought an average of 33 cents per pound. More roughly gathered cotton, constituting an estimated 40 per cent, has brought from 28 to 30 cents per pound. Remaining 10 per cent, gathered by rough stripper methods and containing many green bolls, has netted from 25 to 27 cents per pound.

Sunday morning's frost in the Hamlin territory was not hard enough to drop all the leaves and pop open the bolls on the cotton. A harder frost will improve the grades of the cotton, ginners report.

Methodist Youths Get $120 in CROP Drive

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the First Methodist Church collected $120 for CROP, Christian Rural Overseas Program, in a little over an hour Sunday afternoon. This was done in lieu of the Halloween trick or treat.

With this amount it will be possible to send more than 36,000 pounds of government surplus food overseas to help refugees, orphans and disaster victims.

Those participating in the collection were John Ferguson, Johnny Mac Harwell, Eddie Gabriel, John and Bill Richey, Gene and Bob Murff, Dudley Griggs, Ann Maberry and Ann Richey and Tommy and David Bonds.

Fans Urged to Attend Final Home Grid Tilt

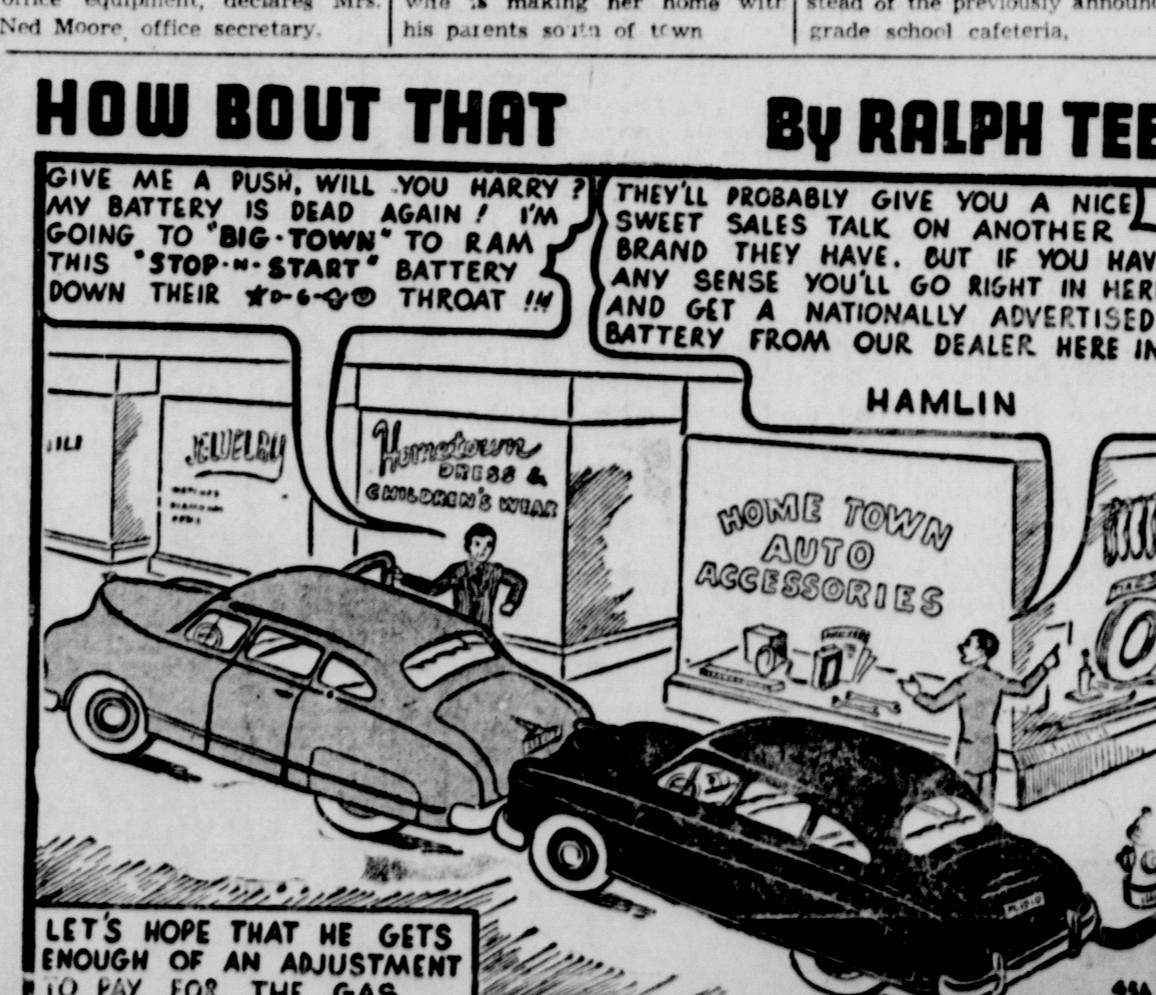

Football fans of the Hamlin territory will have their last chance to witness a home grid game Friday night when the Stamford Bulldogs invade the Pied Piper stadium. Game time is 7:30 o'clock.

School officials point out that, except for the homecoming game, attendance at the local football games this year has been below normal. They urge a big crowd to witness the Hamlin-Stamford tilt that usually provides thrills and spills.

Who's New This Week

Only one new citizen has been recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. The new arrival is:

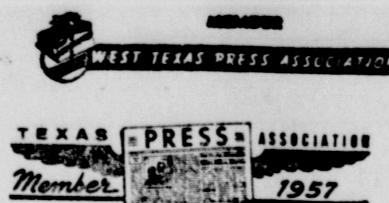

A boy for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Metcalf of Peacock who arrived October 26. After having his weight checked at seven pounds 12 ounces, he was given the name Scott Gilman.

THEORY: BUYING A HOUSE YOU CAN AFFORD

Hamlin, unlike many of the medium size cities of the country, is a city of homes owned by the people who live in them, and the percentage of renters is gradually decreasing. This situation makes for a good community. People who own their homes have an investment in their community that should make them shareholders in what goes on in that community.

Recently major magazines have been discussing formulas for people buying homes. You shouldn't let those rules-of-thumb—such as "pay no more than two and one-half times your income"—guide you when you buy a house. These formulas just do not allow for important individual differences.

Take family size, for instance: A family with several children needs a bigger house and may have to spend more of its money on a house than a childless couple would. Then the children's ages matter. If they are near college age, you would need less too much future income to paying off a mortgage.

Rules-of-thumb encourage you to buy on

Sensible as Dogs

Two big dogs, a Newfoundland and a mastiff, got into an altercation on a bridge, and being blind with rage, over they went into the water. The banks were steep and high, and the dogs were forced to swim some distance before they could find a landing place. This was no trouble for the Newfoundland, who was as much at home in the water as a fish, but the mastiff, worn with fighting, made little progress.

When the Newfoundland reached shore, he turned to look at his enemy, and, seeing his plight, plunged in again, seized him by the collar, and keeping his nose above water, towed him to shore. As they shook their wet coats they touched noses in a friendly way, and were never known to fight again.

Can't human beings be as sensible as dogs?

About a Dishpan

The following editorial is from the Cleveland Plain Dealer:

"Get a load of this, folks. The government has got out a pamphlet on 'Tools for Food Preparation and Dish Washing.' And it contains information we'll bet you never thought of such as 'Dishpans should be large enough to hold the dishes but not too large for the sink.'

"Well, what do you know? For years we had a dishpan that wouldn't hold the dinner plates and when we got a new one it was too big to fit in the sink. Now, thanks to this advice from Washington, we will go right out and buy an in-between size dishpan and see how that works. We never would have solved the problem ourselves. And when it comes to paying our income tax next year we will be especially grateful to the bureaucrat who thought this up."

School Bus Traffic Rules Reviewed By Safety Expert

"Three persons were killed and 89 injured in rural traffic accidents involving school buses in Texas during the first six months of this year," Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said this week in a release to The Herald.

"These deaths and injuries were the results of 197 accidents," the state police director said.

State laws regulating traffic on highways read as follows: The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town, upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children, shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children. The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled access highway and the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

"This means that the driver of the passing vehicle is responsible for taking the due caution. He is responsible for knowing that his proceeding past the bus will not result in endangering any lives," Garrison said.

"Texas drivers should drive even more carefully than usual around school buses. No one has a child to spare."

CHEERFUL GOES WESTERN STYLE—Bryan Rollins, two, of Dallas was dressed in the height of style for services at The Hampton Place Church of God in Dallas. The church closed their gospel crusade with the members wearing Western style dress to services. The congregation made a day of it with a picnic following the services.

Mrs. Jnevra Beatrice Cory, another pioneer of the Hamlin community south of town, passed away last Friday at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital after a three-week illness.

She was a native of Texas, having been born May 9, 1876, to Mr. and Mrs. Shullanberger. She married J. H. Cory at Mount Pleasant on December 10, 1896. He died in December, 1957.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church at Neinda. Officiating was Rev. Jerry Luntz of Abilene, pastor of the church.

Burial was in the Neinda Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home.

Surviving the pioneer are two sons, Dee Cory and Leslie Cory of Hamlin; four daughters, Mrs. C. C. Tabb of Anson, Mrs. Grace Schwartz of Abilene, Mrs. E. L. Raines of Bakersfield, California, and Mrs. O. A. Walters of Oklahoma; and 22 grandchildren.

WONDERING MATTER. "A man's life," sighed Wooly Blinn Bill, "is 20 years of having his mother asking him where he is going; 40 years of having his wife ask the same question; and at the end, the mourners wondering, too."

Hamlin Employees Win in Store GE Sales

Employees of the Hamlin store of Winn's, Inc. were winners recently in a GE light bulb sales contest for the chain of stores. Ed J. Croan, local manager, won first prize of an electric skillet; Mary Bingham won a three-piece luggage set; and Mrs. Heather Taylor won three pairs of nylon hose.

The employees expressed thanks to people of the area for their liberal patronage during the contest.

Cotton Bags Offer Many Sewing Ideas To Thrifty Seamstress

Methodist Women Study China Work At Tuesday Meeting

First Methodist MYF Group Gives Special Program Sunday Eve

Bitten by the sewing bug? If you'd like some new clothes and household accessories easy on the eyes and the pocketbook, why not use those empty cotton bags on your pantry shelf? These versatile sacks will provide you with material for everything from dolls to dresses, at a minimum of cost.

What's more, the people who make feed and flour bags keep the ladies in mind when choosing their fabrics. This season's bag prints are featuring fashion's favorite designs and colors—paisleys, bold plaids, rich stained-glass hues of emerald, burgundy and violet, autumn leaf tones of gold, green and bronze.

You'll find it easy to prepare a sack for sewing. Just rip the chain-stitched seam, remove the printed brand name or paper label with warm, soapy water, then dry and press. Three or four 100-pound print bags will provide enough fabric for a dress, and the smaller containers can be used for toys, children's clothes and kitchen accessories.

New ideas for making gifts and apparel from cotton bags now are available in a free, illustrated booklet of Simplicity pattern suggestions. You may obtain it by writing the National Cotton Council, Department 6, Box 9906, Memphis 12, Tennessee.

Mrs. Edmund W. Robb directed a program on "Methodism in China" when members of the Bonnie McBride Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Stanley Burge.

In a short business session Mrs. Woody Morgan was elected treasurer to replace Mrs. J. O. Ballard, who resigned.

Present were Mmes. Jerry Waggoner, W. T. Johnson, Phil Smith, Mac Fullerton, L. C. Bonds, Edmund Robb, W. L. Hunter, J. O. Ballard, Woody Morgan, H. D. Stallcup, James Harrison, Parker Kelly, Jack Vaughn, Joann Fairbetter and the hostess, Mrs. Stanley Burge.

Next meeting of the group will be with Mrs. Parker Kelly on November 25. Each member is asked to bring a useful article to go into a Thanksgiving box for the needy.

THE FINAL TEST.

"I thought you said this bathing suit was in fast colors," said the customer indignantly. "Why, every confounded stripe in it has come off on my back."

"Ah, but wait," said the shopman suavely, "wait until you try to get them off your back—then you'll see."

Hamlin to Host Stamford in Final Home Grid Game Friday

Pipers Have Slim Chance of Win, But Will Fight

In the final home football game of the year, Hamlin High School's Pied Pipers meet the strong grid crew from Stamford tomorrow (Friday) night on the Pied Piper griddle, when a big turn-out of Hamlin area fans is expected to be on hand to witness the usual Hamlin tussle between the two neighbor foes.

Stamford is doped to win the District 6-AA mela handily, however, Coaches D. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn declare that their charges will put up a game fight against the heavier, more experienced Bulldogs.

Hamlin, with a 500 percentage for the season out of eight games played this year, had failed in both its bids for a victory in district games. The Pied Pipers lost to Haskell 0 to 6, and to Seymour 28 to 45. Previously they had defeated Eastland 28 to 14, Merkel 24 to 14, Rotan 32 to 8 and Childress 26 to 12, while losing to Spru 18 to 28 and Winters 0 to 8.

Stamford has lost only one game this year to the strong Class AAA Sweetwater Mustangs by a 32 to 8 count. They have defeated Quanah 32 to 14, Ballinger 38 to 6, Slaton 36 to 0, Brady 14 to 6, Graham 35 to 0, Anson 50 to 6 and Haskell 39 to 0.

SHORT COUNT.

LEUDERS CREW BEATS McCaulley by 44 to 14

Lueders trounced the McCaulley Eagles 44 to 14 Friday night on the McCaulley griddle in a six-man District 4-B game.

Scoring for McCaulley were Jimmy Jeffries, two touchdowns, and M. Green and Jeffries, extra points. Tallying for Lueders were L. Berryhill, L. Cox and W. Berkman (two) and R. Garrison. Extra points were made by Cox and Berkman.

The game gave Lueders four district victories and no defeats, while McCaulley's record is four losses and no wins.

B Squad Gridders Score 22 Points on Abilene Soph Unit

Coach Neil Laminack's Junior High School Pied Pipers battled the Abilene Junior Eagles to a 56 to 22 loss last Thursday night on the Pied Piper gridiron. Coaches D. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn had entered their charges in the fray favored to win by at least two touchdowns.

The Panthers playing inspired football before a good sized crowd of home folks, the Seymour lads scored in every quarter, racking up 39 points to the Pipers' six before the Hamlin boys rallied and pushed over three touchdowns in the final period.

After playing to a 6 to 6 tie in the first quarter, the Panthers piled up 36 straight points before the Pied Pipers came alive.

Scoring first on a 13-yard touchdown by Travis Clark, the Seymour crew saw things knotted up when Ken Prewit raced 63 yards for pay dirt.

Clark scored again early in the second quarter on a 38-yard run, and Eldon Welch converted. Then Joe Chandler ran 28 yards for pay dirt and a pass Welch-to-Wayland Jones added the extra two points.

Hamlin received the ball but had to punt, and an Abilene lad brought the ball all the way for a marker. Extra point try was good. The Eagles scored twice more before Lee ran the second Hamlin touchdown on a punt return. Point was no good. Abilene scored once more before the half, and the extra point try went wide.

In the second half Hamlin kicked and Abilene ran the ball over for an Abilene tally. Extra point failed.

Abilene was penalized to the one-yard spot, where George Deel made a touchdown for the locals, and the extra point failed.

Abilene got the ball on a fumble and ran the oval for a touchdown, and the extra point was good. Again Abilene ran 35 yards for the last marker of the game.

When time ran out Hamlin had the ball 15 yards from the goal line.—Reported by Jerry Warnell.

Stamford Win Over Haskell Friday Night About Cincs Conference Race

With last Friday night's defeat of the Haskell Indians by Stamford, the football race in District 6-AA was about resolved to its predicted finish. Haskell had been doped as the second strongest team in the district, and the only barrier to an easy victory for the Bulldogs. The score was 39 to 0.

The Bulldogs ran roughshod over the Indians in rolling up 30 first downs to five for the Haskell crew. The Bulldogs made 401 yards on the ground and 62 yards in completing six of 14 passes to Hamlin Junior High School's Mighty Mites found the wet grass and mud to their liking last Tuesday night in flattening Merkel's Little Badgers by a score of 48 to 6 at Merle.

Hamlin enjoyed a 22 to 0 lead at the end of the first quarter and played reserves on defense most of the second half.

Scoring touchdowns for Hamlin were Dan Newberry (3), Mike Martin (2), and Larry Blackwell (2). Dan Newberry picked up two points after touchdowns and Larry Blackwell scored four points.

Merkel scored in the fourth quarter on a pass against the Hamlin reserve team.

Curtis Payne and O. H. Weaver were stand-outs in the Hamlin line. The entire Hamlin backfield played well on the slushy gridiron.

THE HAMLIN HERALD, HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS

Cross Roads Baptist Church, West of Hamlin, Wins Country Church Award

Cross Roads Baptist Church, between Hamlin and Rotan, was recently named winner of the District 17 Town and Country Church Achievement Award sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

District Missions Secretary L. L. Trott of Abilene said the 112-member church conducted a vigorous church improvement program and showed an increased concern for world missions to win the coveted award.

District 17 includes eight Baptist associations, 164 churches, 12 missions and more than 54,550 members in an 11-county area extending from Knox City on the north of Tuscola on the south, and from Roscoe on the west to Ranger on the east.

It is one of 17 geographical areas in which the BGCT promotes the achievement program each year. The winning pastor in each district receives a parchment scroll; the church, a metal plaque which may be displayed in a prominent position outside the building.

One church and pastor will be recognized as state-wide winners during Texas Baptists' annual convention this week in San Antonio.

Cross Roads Church's Pastor Earl D. Hord said the church won five-star recognition again this year from the BGCT for having all basic organizations and giving to missions each month.

Billie Joe McCombs served as chairman of the program's general progress committee. Divided into three categories, the achievement program is judged on projects designed to build a better church, community and world.

Mrs. Glenn Phillips was chairman of the church improvement committee; Horace Carter, community improvement; and Mrs. Frank Kingsfield, world improvement. Mrs. Kingsfield has worked in the church's elementary department for more than 30 years.

Organized in September, 1909, the little church has had 23 pastors and now worships in a $10,500 auditorium completed in 1948.

Among the 46 church improvement goals completed in the program were an increase in membership by 25 per cent; a visual aids program; youth recreation pro-

LUCKY THIRTEEN—Thirteen proved a lucky number for Bill Holcomb (right) of Seminole. That was the number he was given when he entered the ring to show Ranchy, his 1,000-pound Angus steer, at the State Fair of Texas. Ranchy was named grand champion of the milk-fed junior steer show at the fair and was presented the award by James H. Stewart, (left), executive vice president and general manager of the fair.

Firm Prices Recorded by Markets as Livestock Movement Is Rather Light

Movement of all classes of livestock around the major marketing circle was light on the opening session this week and generally firm prices resulted, according to Ide Goudy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. The release continues: At Fort Worth there was a reduction in salable cattle and calves and a small increase in sheep. Swine numbers followed the national pattern.

Cattle and calves ruled mostly steady at Fort Worth Monday. Fat cows were again rather slow, and bulls were steady to weak, but price changes were so narrow that the tone of the trade was about the only concrete evidence of any change. Stockers were active at firm prices with numerous farmer and rancher buyers in the alleys setting a fast pace. Packer calves and fed cattle moved at firm rates.

Good to choice yearlings and heifers sold from $24 to $27, and some good grade steers sold from $25 downward. Common to medium steers and yearlings cashed at $17 to $23. Fat cows drew $18 to $20, and cannery and cutters sold from $12 to $18. Bulls returned $18 to 23.

Good to choice slaughter calves bulked at $24 to $26.50, a few odd head to $27. Medium and plain butchers sold from $18 to $23, and cull sorts sold from $15 to $18. Stocker steer calves of good and choice grades cashed at $27 to $33, some Angus calves weighing 455 pounds at $33 and numerous sales of steer calves were reported from $30 to $31.50. Heifer calves sold mainly from $28 downward. Stocker steer yearlings ranged from $22 to $27, and a few stocker cows cashed at $18 to $20, and were medium or plain kinds.

Hogs were unevenly 25 to 75 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday, mostly 50 cents higher. Sows were steady to 25 cents higher. Choice hogs ranged from $19 to $19.50 in most sales, with medium and good butchers from $17.50 to $18.50. Some heavies scaling over 280 pounds sold at the top of $19.50 and reflected the full advance. Sows were reported from $17 to $17.75.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Good to choice slaughter lambs sold from $21 to $22.50, the higher figure on some 98-pound woolen lambs, and some lambs with No. 2 pelts sold at $22. Stocker and feeder lambs in the wool sold from $20 to $21, and shorn feeders ranged from $20 downward.

Slaughter ewes sold from $7 to $8, and slaughter goats sold at $8. Slaughter aged bucks sold for $7. Yearling and old wethers were scarce.

The annual survey of the livestock situation by the Feed Survey Committee of the American Feed Manufacturers' Association was getting the attention of all segments of the livestock trade at Fort Worth Monday.

Naturally, the high percentage of "hits" which this committee of college and extension service experts has scored in the past makes this report timely and unimportant. The committee has been less than two per cent wrong in the past.

They estimate 14 per cent more hogs in the next 12 months; 10 per cent more broilers; three per cent more beef cattle; five per cent more turkeys; four per cent more sheep; three per cent more laying chickens; two per cent fewer dairy cows; four per cent fewer horses and mules; six per cent fewer other chickens raised for flock replacements.

The 1958 fall pig crop should be 15 per cent above last year. The 1959 spring pig production should be up 14 per cent.

Alvin Lakey, airman in the U.S.

Navy, of Route 2, Hamlin, is now serving at the North Island Naval Air Station at San Diego, California, according to a release to The Herald from that base.

Young Lakey will be stationed at the California base for several weeks before reassignment to a specialist school for further indoctrination.

A question which has plagued movie producers, Western actors and many devotees of sagebrush cinema for many years — how many shots are required to kill a man in a close quarter gun fight — has been resolved.

Immediate concern of United Artists Producer Walter Mirisch was a sequence in "Man of the West" in color and cinemasscope which plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater through United Artists release, calling for Royal Dano to fire three shots at Gary Cooper inside a bank, missing him each time.

When Dano argued it seemed unlikely a bandit would miss thrice drawing from the hip at 20 feet, Mirisch invited Dano and Cooper

— both experienced and excellent shots — to try it out with live ammunition.

A man size target was set up against a hill adjacent to the "Man of the West" set at Red Rock Canyon, and agitated by means of a rope. After a hip draw from 20 feet Dano missed his fourth and made a "kill" shot on his fifth.

"We discovered the closer to the eye the gun is held the deadlier the aim," said Mirisch. "The closer to the hip the worse the aim, but hip or not, it always required more than one shot."

Low numerical axle ratios throughout the line, a reduction in engine weight and extensive use of aluminum in both trim and functional parts, he said, contribute to economical operation of the 1959 models.

Chrysler cars for 1959, with a new series of Golden Lion V-8 engines, went on display in Hamlin last week by Prewitt Motors and in dealer showrooms all over the country.

The new models have major styling changes, including new front and rear designs, side trim and roof styling. New optional features include front swivel seats, an electronic rear view mirror, an automatic headlight beam changer, extra large super soft cushion tires carrying 16 pounds air pressure and rear air suspension for automatic leveling.

C. E. Briggs, Chrysler Corporation vice president and general manager of the Chrysler and Imperial division, said the emphasis in the design and styling of 1959 models was on functional improvements which contribute to agility and handling ease of the car on the road, and on economy, safety and passenger comfort.

He said the new Golden Lion engines, although larger in displacement and with greater rated horsepower, will perform as economically as the engines they replace. He recalled that Chrysler engines took top honors in competitive western economy runs last spring and in previous years.

The state quota for Texas draft

boards in November calls for 556

men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz,

state selective service director,

said Friday.

The state's November call of

556 compares with a quota of 564

for October. The November call is the state's share of a national quota of 11,000 men, all for the Army.

The state director of selective service also announced that 1,750

men were scheduled to take pre-induction medical and physical examinations in November.

The November quota will be filled with men who are at least

22 years old on November 1, with the exception of volunteers or delinquents, who may be younger.

It is possible for some reservists and National Guardsmen to be called up by draft boards if they fail to participate satisfactorily in their units, the state draft director said.

He said the new Golden Lion

engines, although larger in displacement and with greater rated

horsepower, will perform as economic as the engines they replace. He recalled that Chrysler

engines took top honors in competitive western economy runs

The state quota for Texas draft

boards in November calls for 556

men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz,

state selective service director,

said Friday.

The state's November call of

556 compares with a quota of 564

for October. The November call is the state's share of a national quota of 11,000 men, all for the Army.

The state director of selective

service also announced that 1,750

men were scheduled to take pre-induction medical and physical examinations in November.

The November quota will be filled with men who are at least

22 years old on November 1, with the exception of volunteers or delinquents, who may be younger.

It is possible for some reservists and National Guardsmen to be called up by draft boards if they fail to participate satisfactorily in their units, the state draft director said.

He said the new Golden Lion

engines, although larger in dis-

placement and with greater rated

horsepower, will perform as economic as the engines they replace. He recalled that Chrysler

engines took top honors in competitive western economy runs

last spring and in previous years.

Low numerical axle ratios throughout the line, a reduction in engine weight and extensive use of aluminum in both trim and functional parts, he said, contribute to economical operation of the 1959 models.

Chrysler cars for 1959, with a new series of Golden Lion V-8 engines, went on display in Hamlin last week by Prewitt Motors and in dealer showrooms all over the country.

HAMLIN, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 6 NINETEEN HUNDRED
THURSDAY, AND FIFTY-EIGHT

TEXAS MISS WINS SEWING CONTEST—These pretty blonde teen-agers were named junior home sewing champions of the nation in finals held in New York. Lynda Harper, 17, of Bellaire (left), won the $1,000 first prize, and Christine Engstrom, 13, of Pasadena, California, (right) was the $500 second place winner.

Breathes there a boy with heart so dead
Who never to himself hath said, "My best girl has gone back on me;
Her likes again I hope I never see; Now I'll not stay at home and mope,
But rather treat it as a joke!"

"I'll dress myself all in my best And step right out with all the rest,

And if, when I am on the street, She and I should chance to meet, I'll not greet her with a tearful sigh

But coolly, calmly pass her by."

And so he primped for all he's worth:

Dons hat and coat and sallies forth.

He scarce has walked a block, when, lo,

"Hi, Ted," she cried. And he, "My darling Flo!"

Then arm in arm, they walk and walk,

And honied words make up their talk.

True love has had its way at last, And all the world goes smiling past!

CMORE QUIRKS from the column of Foxtail Johnson writing in the Sheep and Goat Raiser magazine published at San Angelo, included the following:

Young Pickax Posey got sent to jail for speedin on the highway and the first day there got throwed into solitary for speedin' to the mess hall.

One guvernement bureau has relocated the center of the U. S. from Kansas to Dakota. Center of the universe is still the biggest moonshine still on Squawberry Flat, and another guvernement bureau is tryin' to locate that.

Yep. I'm sayin' for Christmas. Already got lists put by of merchants in Beaver Slide and Kiote Hole that maybe ain't heard about my credit standin' in Hardscrabble.

Admiral Rickover needn't fret. The man that invented sin ain't never had no proper recognition. Maybe it's because we're too busy with his product to remember the inventor.

My wife ain't got no ambition to fly to the moon. She read where scientists think it's covered with dust and trash, so it must look like her house after a visit from her grandchildren.

The yearbook will contain material to show all phases of pupil activity including classes, favorites, athletics, faculty, organizations and snap-shots.

Advertising will not be sold. Cost of the yearbook to the students is expected to be $1.25.

Lou Ann Hawkins will serve as head of the annual staff. Other members are Kay Johnson, Larry Grimm, Mary Beth Hall, Cheryl Brown, Sue Johnson, Cherry Criswell, Ronnie Sipe, Lanny Foster, Elizabeth Cunningham, Mary Lois Patterson and Linda Hallmark.

Highway Projects In Area Underway

Despite colder and drizzling weather that has persisted the last few days in the Hamlin territory, two major highway projects have gotten underway by two contracting firms. Totaling nearly $900,000, the jobs include relocating and widening of Highway 92 from Hamlin to Stamford, and 9.4 miles of new farm-to-market road toward Old Glory.

Workers of A. & A. Contractors, Inc., have begun work of building drainage structures and preliminary dirt work on 17.17 miles of Highway 92 from Hamlin to the Anson-Stamford highway intersection south of Stamford.

Route of the widened highway is east along the present Highway 92 through the colored section and angling behind the Mac Sellers

place to come alongside the old road near the Hamlin East Cemetery; then paralleling that route south of present paving for nine miles to the C. P. Amerson place, where the present route will be widened and repaved. Reason for relocation of the highway is that the main line of the Lone Star Gas Company, immediately south of the present route was within the bounds of the widened right-of-way. The gas firm wanted some $250,000 to move the line, which was deemed prohibitive by Jones County commissioners. Contractor has 180 working days to complete the project.

Drainage structures and preliminary dirt work has been started on the 9.4-mile stretch of Farm-to-Market Road 2481 from the Stonewall County line south to intersect Highway 92 near the oil mill. This is part of a new paved thoroughfare from Hamlin to Old Glory, part of which has already been completed. Cage Brothers of San Antonio, contractor on the job, has 115 days to complete the project.

As on the Cage Brothers contract is 4.7 miles of farm-to-market road from Hobbs, Fisher County south to U. S. Highway 180.

Missionary to Colombia Builds Cafe And Tourist Center to Pay for Return

Ten years of service to natives of Colombia, South America, as medical missionaries left in the hands of Rev. and Mrs. James C. Holden of the Boyd's Chapel community a desire to return to that far-away land and pick up where they left off several years ago.

During their stay back in the United States they have spoken in hundreds of churches and shown movies and relics of that South American republic. Free-will donations have gone into a fund that will aid them in their work when they return to Colombia in 1960.

However, newest project of the Holdens to raise money for their continuing missionary task is the erection of a fort style tourist center on U. S. Highway 180 south of Hamlin, one mile west of Boyd's Chapel. They have recently completed the first in a series of projected buildings—a cafe, which has just been opened to the public. They are working on a gift shop, small museum and other structures in the project that will be operated for two years by Rev. and Mrs. Holden. Then some of the boys and their families will take over and permit the Holdens to return to Colombia. It is their sincere hope that fruits of the venture will pay the missionaries' expenses in South America.

Their youngest son, who is 11 years old now, contracted polio two years ago while the Holdens were in Colorado, has prevented their returning to the mission field earlier. He is doing nicely, the Holdens report, responding readily to treatments. They have also took Spanish in school.

County Residents Purchase 80% of Year's Bond Goal

During the month of September the citizens of Jones County purchased $41,843 in Series E and H savings bonds. This announcement was made by A. C. Humphrey of Stamford, county savings bond committee chairman.

"Sales for the first nine months of this year totaled $384,840," Chairman Humphrey reported. "We have now achieved 80.8 per cent of our 1958 goal of $476,000."

Sales in Texas during the first nine months of 1958 were $132,257,457 which represents 75.6 per cent of the 1958 goal of some $175,000,000.

"Under a recent change in treasury regulations, individuals who hold F and G bonds that mature after September 1, 1958, may invest the proceeds from the maturing bonds in E and H bonds without regard to annual purchase limits," Humphrey announced.

Bond purchases by counties in District 16 of Central West Texas and percentage of the year's goal are given in the table below:

County	Sales	Goal
Callahan	$201,793	96.5
Eastland	572,640	112.0

Most City Businesses To Observe Holiday

Practically all business houses of Hamlin will observe next Tuesday, November 11, as a holiday in commemoration of Veterans Day, according to the Hamlin Board of Community Development.

Hamlin schools will not observe the holidays, reports Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook, who points out that a lengthy holiday period will be taken for the Thanksgiving observance three weeks from this week-end.

BCD Offices Moved to Carmichael Building

Offices of the Hamlin Board of Community Development were this week moved from upstairs in the city hall building to the Carmichael building, just east of the post office on Southwest Third Street.

The new quarters will make the BCD more accessible to callers on the civic organization and will permit better arrangement of office equipment, declares Mrs. Ned Moore, office secretary.

Oil Test Just South of City Limits Sparks New Interest

Hamlin Librarian To Be Treasurer For District Group

Robert E. Haynes of Hamlin, son of Robert E. Haynes of Hamlin, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio. He has been selected to attend the technical training course for communications center specialists at Sheppard Air Force Base at Wichita Falls.

4-H Achievement Banquet Set Saturday

Scores of Jones County 4-H Club boys and girls and interested leaders and adults are scheduled to attend the annual 4-H achievement awards banquet Saturday night at Anson.

The banquet will be held in the Anson High School cafeteria instead of the previously announced grade school cafeteria.

Harden Wildcat Attracts Renewed Focus to Region

Oil operations this week moved onto Hamlin's front porch as a new wildcat was spotted Monday just outside the south city limits of the town. The wildcat gave credence to reports that increased drilling is proposed for the area for the next several months.

The test is a 3,700-foot rotary project spotted by J. B. Schick and Fox & Ransdell of Abilene No. 1 on the Jack A. Harden tract just east of the Hamlin Drive-In Theater. The brightly lighted rig went up Tuesday and attracted considerable attention from residents of the community and other passers-by.

Drillsite is 1,670 feet from the north and 6,490 feet from the east lines of Austin & Williams Survey No. 354.

Another wildcat spotted this week in the region is the Christie-Stewart Drilling Company of Wichita Falls No. 1-B Swenson test, 12½ miles east of Hamlin. Site for the 2,850-foot rotary project is 330 feet from the south and east lines of Section 82, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

With this amount it will be possible to send more than 36,000 pounds of government surplus food overseas to help refugees, orphans and disaster victims.

Those participating in the collection were John Ferguson, Johnny Mac Harwell, Eddie Gabriel, John and Bill Richey, Gene and Bob Murff, Dudley Griggs, Ann Maberry and Ann Richey and Tommy and David Bonds.

Fans Urged to Attend Final Home Grid Tilt

Football fans of the Hamlin territory will have their last chance to witness a home grid game Friday night when the Stamford Bulldogs invade the Pied Piper stadium. Game time is 7:30 o'clock.

School officials point out that, except for the homecoming game, attendance at the local football games this year has been below normal. They urge a big crowd to witness the game.

Program for the evening's get-together will be provided by Rev. Gene Moore, pastor of the Faith Methodist Church, and wife, both of whom are talented musicians.

DePriest Principal at State School Meeting

Principal E. S. Morgan of DePriest Colored School in Hamlin last week attended the state principals' conference at Austin.

Guest speakers included Dr. J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of education. Others from the agency participated in the sectional meetings.

Most negro principals from over the state attended the conference, Morgan reported.

Rough Harvest Methods Penalize Price to Farmer

Hamlin territory still will produce a good cotton crop—if the weather will give farmers a chance to gather it—although the quality of much of it will take price penalties, according to Watt Fletcher, manager of the Hamlin Farmers Cooperative Gin.

Fletcher estimated Wednesday that between one-fourth and one-third of the crop had been gathered. More than 2,400 bales had been ginned by the gins at Hamlin and Neinda at mid-week.

Shortage of transient labor in the area has been a factor in the late gathering of the crop. Fletcher pointed out, while rainy weather likewise had played an important role in the slow movement to the gins. Laborers have been scarce generally than usual this year, and reports of apparently whiter fields north and west of here have attracted the transients past the region. Farmers are paying $2 and $2.25 per 100 pounds for cotton delivered to the gins here.

Cotton that can be gathered by hand, making up probably 50 per cent of crop brought in thus far, has brought an average of 33 cents per pound. More roughly gathered cotton, constituting an estimated 40 per cent, has brought from 28 to 30 cents per pound. Remaining 10 per cent, gathered by rough stripper methods and containing many green bolls, has netted from 25 to 27 cents per pound.

Sunday morning's frost in the Hamlin territory was not hard enough to drop all the leaves and pop open the bolls on the cotton. A harder frost will improve the grades of the cotton, ginners report.

Methodist Youths Get $120 in CROP Drive

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the First Methodist Church collected $120 for CROP, Christian Rural Overseas Program, in a little over an hour Sunday afternoon. This was done in lieu of the Hallowe'en trick or treat.

With this amount it will be possible to send more than 36,000 pounds of government surplus food overseas to help refugees, orphans and disaster victims.

Who's New This Week

THEORY: BUYING A HOUSE YOU CAN AFFORD

Hamlin, unlike many of the medium size cities of the country, is a city of homes owned by the people who live in them, and the percentage of renters is gradually decreasing.
This situation makes for a good community.
People who own their homes have an investment in their community that should make them shareholders in what goes on in that community.

Recently major magazines have been discussing formulas for people buying homes.

You shouldn't let those rules-of-thumb—such as "pay no more than two and one-half times your income"—guide you when you buy a house. These formulas just do not allow for important individual differences.

Take family size, for instance: A family with several children needs a bigger house and may have to spend more of its money on a house than a childless couple would. Then the children's ages matter. If they are near college age, you would need to save too much future income to paying off a mortgage.

Rules-of-thumb encourage you to buy on the basis of this year's income. According to the editors, your true buying ability depends on future income. A man whose income will be reduced by retirement five years hence would be foolish to buy a house costing two and one-half times his present income.

Second incomes are considered. Your lender gives credit for half the wife's income if she is a professional and under 32; full credit over 32; and no credit for a non-professional working wife under 32.

Differences in living standards count, too.
People on low incomes spend more for housing than people with big incomes. If your income is good, go easy on blowing every last cent on a house. You might have to pare down your style of living.

Savings have a bearing on the price of the house you can afford. With a big down pay-price you can pay, forget the folklore. Let a man with the same income who never has saved.

So, as your first step in appraising the price you can pay, forget the folklore. Let your own situation be your guide.

Sensible as Dogs

Two big dogs, a Newfoundland and a mastiff, got into an altercation on a bridge, and being blind with rage, over they went into the water. The banks were steep and high, and the dogs were forced to swim some distance before they could find a landing place.

This was no trouble for the Newfoundland, who was as much at home in the water as a dog, but the mastiff, worn with fighting, made little progress.

When the Newfoundland reached shore, he turned to look at his enemy, and, seeing his plight, plunged in again, seized him by the collar, and keeping his nose above water, towed him to shore. As they shook their wet coats they touched noses in a friendly way, and were never known to fight again.

Can't human beings be as sensible as dogs?

About a Dishpan

The following editorial is from the Cleveland, Ohio, Plain Dealer:

"Get a load of this, folks. The government has got out a pamphlet on 'Tools for Food Preparation and Dish Washing.' And it contains information we'll bet you never thought of such as 'Dishpans should be large enough to hold the dishes but not too large for the sink.'

"Well, what do you know? For years we had a dishpan that wouldn't hold the dinner plates and when we got a new one it was too big to fit in the sink. Now, thanks to this advice from Washington, we will go right out and buy an in-between size dishpan and see how that works. We never would have solved the problem ourselves. And when it comes to paying our income tax next year we will be especially grateful to the bureaucrat who thought this up."

School Bus Traffic

Rules Reviewed

By Safety Expert

"Three persons were killed and 89 injured in rural traffic accidents involving school buses in Texas during the first six months of this year," Colonel Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said this week in a release to The Herald.

"These deaths and injuries were the results of 197 accidents," the state police director said.

State laws regulating traffic on highways read as follows: The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside of the limits of any incorporated city or town, upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children, shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding 10 miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children.

The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled access highway and the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

"This means that the driver of the passing vehicle is responsible for taking the due caution. He is responsible for knowing that his proceeding past the bus will not result in endangering any lives," Garrison said.

"Texas drivers should drive even more carefully than usual around school buses. No one has a child to spare."

Aluminum is the most abundant of metallic elements.

COWBOY COPS WESTERN STYLE—Bryan Rollins, two, of Dallas was dressed in the height of style for services at The Hampton Place Church of God in Dallas. The church closed their gospel crusade with the members wearing Western style dress to services. The congregation made a day of it with a picnic following the services.

B Squadmen and Junior High Train vs. Lions Told

In Schools will have some ball players coming up, indicated by B coach Neil Martin of Hamlin High School and Harry Martin of Junior High, when they spoke at today noon luncheon of Lions Club at the oil mill house.

Frankie declared that his B players had looked good in most of their games this season, having won four, lost three and tied one. He said two more games are on the B squad's schedule. They will play Merkell Thursday night and Haskell next Thursday. Outstanding boys on the team include Larry Upshaw, Jerry Duncan, Neil Branscum, Curtis Payne, Joe Mendoza, Robert Woodruff, Henry O'Neal, George Deel, Gerald McCandles, David Bonds, Robert Rangel, Bob Murff, Jimmy Cooper, Bob Shields, Stanley Austin, Dave Bellamy, Jack Haught, Jodie Ford, Peanut Boatright, Bill Richey and Frankie Lee; also Rayford Williams and Alvin Houghton, who have been out most of the season with injuries.

Coach Harry Martin of Junior High School said his eighth grade squad had shown up well, winning two, losing two and tying one game this season so far. He has only 22 boys in this group. There are 36 boys in his seventh grade unit, which has won one game, lost one and tied one.

Max Murrell and Johnny Holzman were installed as new members of the Lions Club by Acting President B. V. Newberry. The civic group voted to dispense with next Tuesday's meeting on account of the Veterans Day holiday observance.

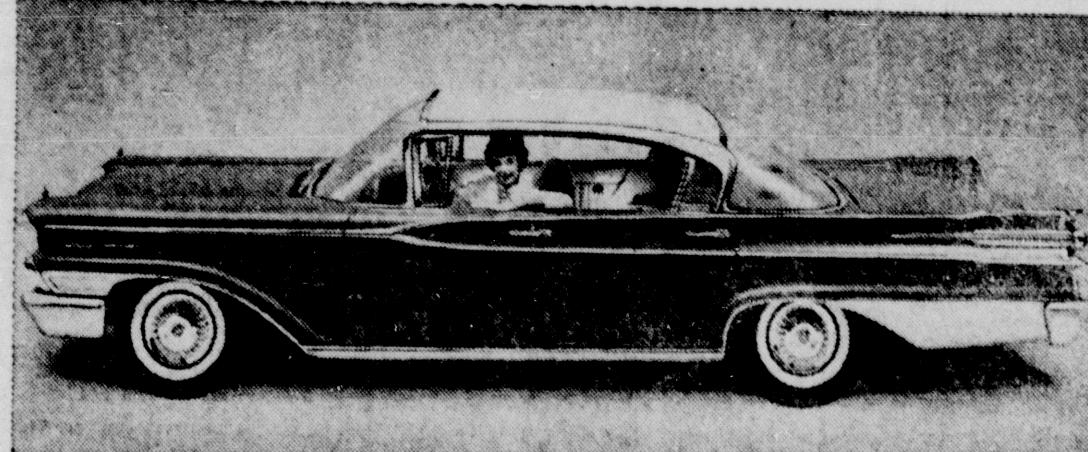

Besides the two coaches, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cain of Sweetwater and Wesley Minton.

County Judge Speaks For First Methodists

County Judge H. G. (Pete) Andrews Jr. of Stamford was the speaker Sunday morning for the Laymen's Day service at the First Methodist Church. His topic was on the layman's place in the church. Church Lay Leader John C. Bryant directed the program.

Ronny Parker, youth director of the church, who is a ministerial student at McMurry College in Abilene, preached Sunday evening.

The Herald has carbon paper.

SPACE-PLANNED BODIES which provide a totally new experience in passenger comfort in both front and back seats are presented by Mercury in its entirely new cars for 1959, on display at Hamlin Motor Company. In its twentieth anniversary models, Mercury offers a brilliant combination of advanced design, mechanical excellence and superior performance and economy. Designed exclusively for the medium price field the new Mercury has 15 models in four series, including the only two-door station wagon in the medium price range. New compound curved windshield and rear window increase glass area more than 60 per cent at the front and 46 per cent at the rear. Mercury's high compression V-8 engines provide an exact blending of the most desirable features of economy and power. Pictured is the Park Lane four-door Cruiser.

Travel Expenses on Income Tax Tricky

Travel and transportation expenses have been a big subject of conversation between tax men and business travelers during the past year, observes Tax Man Sam in a release to The Herald.

The Internal Revenue Service has always made thousands of audits of traveling men's expenses each year. The service takes a dim view of personal vacations and non-business travel being charged off of the taxpayer's income tax as a business expense.

If you have business travel expense you should keep a careful record of your expenses. This record may come in handy for discussion purposes when the internal revenue agent calls.

America is the second largest land mass of the globe.

Hamlin Majorettes in McMurry Maneuvers

Each year the McMurry College Band of Abilene is host to several bands of this area in half-time performance. This year the majorettes of the Pied Piper Band were selected to twirl with them.

Wynona Conner, Judy Parker, Peggy Killion, Martha Gage and Brenda Fincannon, Pied Piper Band majorettes, performed at the half-time Monday night with several other majorettes.

Libby Johnson was selected to play with the band also.

Mrs. Jnevra Cory, Neinda Resident For 50 Years, Dies

Mrs. Jnevra Beatrice Cory, another pioneer of the Hamlin community south of town, passed away last Friday at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital after a three-week illness.

She was a native of Texas, having been born May 9, 1876, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shullanberger. She married J. H. Cory at Mount Pleasant on December 10, 1896. He died in December, 1957.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church at Neinda. Officiating was Rev. Jerry Luntz of Abilene, pastor of the church.

Burial was in the Neinda Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home.

Surviving the pioneer are two sons, Dee Cory and Leslie Cory of Hamlin; four daughters, Mrs. C. C. Tabb of Anson, Mrs. Grace Schwartz of Abilene, Mrs. E. L. Raines of Bakerfield, California, and Mrs. O. A. Walters of Oklahoma; and 22 grandchildren.

WONDERING MATTER. "A man's life," sighed Wooly Bill, "is 20 years of having his mother asking him where he is going; 40 years of having his wife ask the same question; and at the end, the mourners wondering, too."

Hamlin Employees Win in Store GE Sales

Employees of the Hamlin store of Winn's, Inc., were winners recently in a GE light bulb sales contest for the chain of stores. Ed J. Croan, local manager, won first prize of an electric skillet; Mary Bingham won a three-piece luggage set; and Mrs. Heather Taylor won three pairs of nylon hose.

The employees expressed thanks to people of the area for their liberal patronage during the contest.

Program on Care of Clothing Offers Many Good Pointers for Club Group

A program on "Care of Clothing" was brought by Mrs. Jack Kelly and Mrs. Dale Lain when members of the Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club met in the Neinla community center.

Pamphlets on corn meal and grits were handed to each member by Mrs. Elmer Jolner. These pamphlets are interesting. They point out that corn meal is an important food in Texas. Survey show that many rural families in Texas use almost as much corn meal as white flour. There are five varieties of corn meal and three of grits. There are also recipes and menus for the use of corn meal and grits in the pamphlet.

The Good Neighbor Club voted to endorse the bookmobile for Jones County.

Mrs. Kelly and Lain brought the following facts on the care of clothing:

For most in the work and planning it takes to be well dressed is the care given clothing. Proper care will improve the appearance of garments and increase their wearing qualities.

Dresses, coats and suits should be brushed thoroughly after each wearing. Using a stiff brush brush the collar, seams, cuffs and under the collar and cuffs. Brush remainder of garment with long strokes.

Hang garments to air before placing them in the closet.

If a stain or spot can be removed by home methods it is easier to remove this when fresh. Minor repairs should always be made before the garment is put away. When hanging a garment be sure it hangs straight so it will not pull out of shape. Hangs of the wire type should be covered with tissue paper or old nylon hose. In damp weather this will keep the hanger from getting rust on your clothes.

Shoes, hats, gloves, hose and undergarments need daily care and stored properly.

Remember, the care given to clothing is the thing which makes us well dressed and helps us make a good appearance.

Refreshments were served to attendants at the meeting by Mrs. Dale Lain and Mrs. Arion Smith.

FHA Chapter Elects Beau at Gathering

New yearbooks were given to attendants when members of the Hamlin High School chapter of Future Homemakers of America met last Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium.

The girls elected their FHA beau. The boy who was named is to be kept secret until he is presented the honor.

Tuesday evening's program consisted of two films on civil defense, "Food for Thought" and "Operation Welcome," a film on how to evacuate a city.

The meeting was adjourned with the closing ritual.

Establishing Good Breakfast Habits Vital To Energy for School

September—and the opening of school—means a "fresh start" for most family members in one way or another. It's also the time when eating habits are reestablished for the school and work days ahead. It's a fine time to establish good breakfast habits for every member of the family, says Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent.

Eating a good breakfast pays off in efficiency, alertness and better health. There's lots of proof for that statement. Research has shown that breakfast skippers rob themselves of potential alertness and efficiency during late morning hours, and that dieters are wrong if they think missing breakfast is a practical way to lose weight.

Aim for an adequate breakfast. That means one that will provide one-fourth to one-third of the day's total food requirements in calories and nutrients. It should include these basic foods—fruit or fruit juices, cereal or eggs and meat or both, whole or enriched bread, butter or margarine, milk and coffee.

The Texas Food Standard is a recommended guide for planning for daily family needs. Get a copy from your county home demonstration agent, or write the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Cotton Bags Offer Many Sewing Ideas To Thrifty Seamstress

Bitten by the sewing bug?

If you'd like some new clothes and household accessories easy on the eyes and the pocketbook, why not use those empty cotton bags on your pantry shelf? These versatile sacks will provide you with material for everything from dolls to dresses, at a minimum of cost.

What's more, the people who make feed and flour bags keep the ladies in mind when choosing their fabrics. This season's bag prints are featuring fashion's favorite designs and colors—paisleys, bold plaids, rich stained-glass hues of emerald, burgundy and violet, autumn leaf tones of gold, green and bronze.

You'll find it easy to prepare a sack for sewing. Just rip the chain-stitched seam, remove the printed brand name or paper label with warm, soapy water, then dry and press. Three or four 100-pound print bags will provide enough fabric for a dress and the smaller containers can be used for toys, children's clothes and kitchen accessories.

New ideas for making gifts and apparel from cotton bags now are available in a free, illustrated booklet of Simplicity pattern suggestions. You may obtain it by writing the National Cotton Council, Department 6, Box 9906, Memphis 12, Tennessee.

Methodist Women Study China Work At Tuesday Meeting

Mrs. Edmund W. Robb directed a program on "Methodism in China" when members of the Bonnie McBride Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Stanley Burge.

In a short business session Mrs. Woody Morgan was elected treasurer to replace Mrs. J. O. Ballard, who resigned.

Present were Mmes. Jerry Waggoner, W. T. Johnson, Phil Smith, Mac Fullerton, L. C. Bonds, Edmund Robb, W. L. Hunter, J. O. Ballard, Woody Morgan, H. D. Stallcup, James Harrison, Parker Kelly, Jack Vaughn, Joann Fairbetter and the hostess, Mrs. Stanley Burge.

Next meeting of the group will be with Mrs. Parker Kelly on November 25. Each member is asked to bring a useful article to go into a Thanksgiving box for the needy.

THE FINAL TEST.

"I thought you said this bathing suit was in fast colors," said the customer indignantly. "Why, every confounded stripe in it has come off on my back."

"Ah, but wait," said the shopman suavely, "wait until you try to get them off your back—then you'll see."

Actuary, which now denotes an insurance mathematician, originally referred to Roman news reporters who records the "acts of the day."

LABELS FOR SPICES.

There is something comparatively new, attractive and convenient on the market: White and gold labels printed in black with the names of various herbs and spices. If you have a set of herb and spice jars, bottles or cannisters with worn labels, or none at all, you can use these labels to advantage.

arrangement, turned off all the other lights and left the room. Ronny Parker, youth worker, then quietly dismissed the group with the MYF benediction.

Hamlin to Host Stamford in Final Home Grid Game Friday

Pipers Have Slim Chance of Win, But Will Fight

In the final home football game of the year, Hamlin High School's Pied Pipers meet the strong grid crew from Stamford tomorrow (Friday) night on the Pied Piper gridiron, when a big turn-out of Hamlin area fans is expected to be on hand to witness the usual annual tussle between the two neighbor foes.

Stamford is doped to win the District 6-AA melle handily, however, Coaches D. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn declare that their charges will put up a game fight against the heavier, more experienced Bulldogs.

Hamlin, with a .500 percentage for the season out of eight games played this year, had failed in both its bids for a victory in district games. The Pied Pipers lost to Haskell 0 to 6, and to Seymour 28 to 45. Previously they had defeated Eastland 28 to 14, Merkel 24 to 14, Rotan 32 to 8 and Childress 26 to 12, while losing to Spur 18 to 28 and Winters 0 to 8.

Stamford has lost only one game this year to the strong Class AAA Sweetwater Mustangs by a 32 to 2 count. They have defeated Quanah 32 to 14, Ballinger 38 to 6, Slaton 36 to 0, Brady 14 to 6, Graham 35 to 0, Anson 50 to 0 and Haskell 39 to 0.

Leuders Crew Beats McCaulley by 44 to 14

Lueders trounced the McCaulley Eagles 44 to 14 Friday night on the McCaulley gridiron in a six-man District 4-B game.

Scoring for McCaulley were Jimmy Jeffries, two touchdowns, and M. Green and Jeffries, extra points. Tallying for Lueders were J. Berryhill, L. Cox and W. Berkman (two) and R. Garrison. Extra points were made by Cox and Berkman.

The game gave Lueders four district victories and no defeats, while McCaulley's record is four losses and no wins.

B Squad Gridders Score 22 Points on Abilene Soph Unit

Coach Neil Laminack's Junior High School Pied Pipers battled the Abilene Junior Eagles to a 56 to 22 loss last Thursday night on the Pied Piper gridiron. Coaches D. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn had entered their charges in the fray favored to win by at least two touchdowns.

The Panthers playing inspired football before a good sized crowd of home folks, the Seymour lads scored in every quarter, racking up 39 points to the Pipers' six before the Hamlin boys rallied and pushed over three touchdowns in the final period.

After playing to a 6 to 6 tie in the first quarter, the Panthers piled up 36 straight points before the Pied Pipers came alive.

Scoring first on a 13-yard touchdown by Travis Clark, the Seymour crew saw things knotted up when Ken Prewit raced 63 yards for pay dirt.

Hamlin received the ball but had to punt, and an Abilene lad brought the ball all the way for a marker. Extra point try was good. The Eagles scored twice more before Lee ran the second Hamlin touchdown on a punt return. Point was no good. Abilene scored once more before the half, and the extra point try went wide.

In the second half Hamlin kicked and Abilene ran the ball over for an Abilene tally. Extra point failed.

Abilene was penalized to the one-yard spot, where George Deel made a touchdown for the locals, and the extra point failed.

When time ran out Hamlin had the ball 15 yards from the goal line.—Reported by Jerry Warnell.

Seymour Upsets Dope by Whipping Pied Pipers 45 to 28

In the principal upset of the dope bucket of the Hamlin football season, the Seymour High School Panthers last Friday night tripped the Pied Pipers of Hamlin 45 to 28 on the Panther gridiron. Coaches D. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn had entered their charges in the fray favored to win by at least two touchdowns.

The Panthers playing inspired football before a good sized crowd of home folks, the Seymour lads scored in every quarter, racking up 39 points to the Pipers' six before the Hamlin boys rallied and pushed over three touchdowns in the final period.

In the second half Rotan scored with one minute gone, and the extra point try failed. Rotan kicked off but recovered and ran the ball over from the 15-yard spot, and the extra point failed.

Hamlin's Cooper ran to the one-yard spot when he intercepted a Rotan pass. He then made two points after touchdowns and Larry Blackwell scored four points.

Merkel scored in the fourth quarter on a pass against the Hamlin reserve team.

Curtis Payne and O. H. Weaver were stand-outs in the Hamlin line. The entire Hamlin backfield played well on the slushy gridiron.

Stamford Win Over Haskell Friday Night About Cinches Conference Race

With last Friday night's defeat of the Haskell Indians by Stamford, the football race in District 6-AA was about resolved to its predicted finish. Haskell had been doped as the second strongest team in the district, and the only barrier to an easy victory for the Bulldogs. The score was 39 to 0.

The Bulldogs ran roughshod over the Indians in rolling up 30 first downs to five for the Haskell crew. The Bulldogs made 401 yards on the ground and 62 yards in completing six of 14 passes to

THE HAMLIN HERALD, HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS

Cross Roads Baptist Church, West of Hamlin, Wins Country Church Award

Cross Roads Baptist Church, between Hamlin and Rotan, was recently named winner of the District 17 Town and Country Church Achievement Award sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

District Missions Secretary L. L. Trott of Abilene said the 112-member church conducted a vigorous church improvement program and showed an increased concern for world missions to win the coveted award.

District 17 includes eight Baptist associations, 164 churches, 12 missions and more than 54,550 members in an 11-county area extending from Knox City on the north to Roscoe on the west to Ranger on the east.

It is one of 17 geographical areas in which the BGCT promotes the achievement program each year. The winning pastor in each district receives a parchment scroll; the church, a metal plaque which may be displayed in a prominent position outside the building.

One church and pastor will be recognized as state-wide winners during Texas Baptists' annual convention this week in San Antonio.

Cross Roads Church's Pastor Earl D. Hord said the church won five-star recognition again this year from the BGCT for having all basic organizations and giving to missions each month.

Billie Joe McCombs served as chairman of the program's general progress committee. Divided into three categories, the achievement program is judged on projects designed to build a better church, community and world.

Mrs. Glenn Phillips was chairman of the church improvement committee; Horace Carter, community improvement; and Mrs. Frank Kingsfield, world improvement. Mrs. Kingsfield has worked in the church's elementary department for more than 30 years.

Organized in September, 1909, the little church has had 23 pastors and now worships in a $10,500 auditorium completed in 1948.

Among the 46 church improvement goals completed in the program were an increase in membership by 25 per cent; a visual aids program; youth recreation pro-

J. Walter Hammond To Be Honored for Farm Bureau Service

J. Walter Hammond of Tye, former president of the Texas Farm Bureau and known to many Hamlin area people, will be honored at a special appreciation program at Corpus Christi Sunday at the farm organization's silver anniversary convention, to be attended by several from this section.

Hammond was leader of the state Farm Bureau from 1938 until last November. He was succeeded by J. H. West of Bishop, former secretary-treasurer and vice president of the farm organization. During Hammond's 19 years in office the membership grew from less than 5,000 to 72,681. During this period the TFB has been credited with many notable achievements on behalf of agriculture.

Methodists to Hear Japan Educator in Address at Stamford

Several members of the Hamlin Methodist Churches are scheduled to go to Stamford Monday evening when Rev. Dr. Takao Matsumoto, dean of the school of religious studies at Aoyama Gakuin, Tokyo, Japan, and a graduate of two American universities, speaks at St. John's Methodist Church.

Beginning at 7:30 o'clock the missionary institute service is being sponsored by the Stamford and Abilene districts of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Matsumoto, who was president of the Hiroshima Girls School in August, 1945, when the first atomic bomb fell on that city, is in the United States on a six-month speaking tour. He will be telling the story of five noted Christian schools in Japan which Methodists support financially through the division of world missions of the Board of Missions.

Firm Prices Recorded by Markets as Livestock Movement Is Rather Light

Movement of all classes of live stock around the major marketing circle was light on the opening session this week and generally firm prices recorded, according to Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly market summary. The release continues: At Fort Worth there was a reduction in saleable cattle and calves and a small increase in sheep. Swine numbers followed the national pattern.

Cattle and calves ruled mostly steady at Fort Worth Monday. Fat cows were again rather slow, and bulls were steady to weak, but price changes were so narrow that it's hard to tell the trade was about the only concrete evidence of any change. Stockers were active at firm prices with numerous farmer and rancher buyers in the alleys setting a fast pace. Packer calves and fed cattle moved at firm rates.

Good to choice yearlings and heifers sold from $24 to $27, and some good grade steers sold from $25 downward. Common to medium steers and yearlings cashed at $17 to $23. Fat cows drew $18 to $20, and cannies and cutters sold from $12 to $18. Bulls returned $18 to 23.

Good to choice slaughter calves bulked at $24 to $26.50, a few odd head to $27. Medium and plain butchers sold from $18 to $23, and all sorts sold from $15 to $18. Stocker steer calves of good and choice grades cashed at $27 to $33. Some Angus calves weighing 455 pounds at $33 and numerous sales of steer calves were reported from $30 to $31.50. Heifer calves sold mainly from $28 downward. Stocker steer yearlings ranged from $22 to $27, and a few stocker cows cashed at $18 to $20, and were medium or plain kinds.

Hogs were unevenly 25 to 75 cents higher at Fort Worth Monday, mostly 50 cents higher. Sows were steady to 25 cents higher. Choice hogs ranged from $19 to $19.50 in most sales, with medium and good butchers from $17.50 to $18.50. Some heavies scaling over 280 pounds sold at the top of $19.50 and reflected the full advance. Sows were reported from $17 to $17.75.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Good to choice slaughter lambs sold from $21 to $22.50, the higher figure on some 98-pound woolen lambs, and some lambs with No. 2 pelts sold at $22. Stocker and feeder lambs in the wool sold from $20 to $21, and shorn feeders ranged from $20 downward.

Slaughter ewes sold from $7 to $8, and slaughter goats sold at $8. Slaughter aged bucks sold for $7. Yearling and old wethers were scarce.

The annual survey of the livestock situation by the Feed Survey Committee of the American Feed Manufacturers' Association was getting the attention of all segments of the livestock trade at Fort Worth Monday.

Naturally, the high percentage of "hits" which this committee of college and extension service experts has scored in the past makes this report timely and unimportant. The committee has been less than two per cent wrong in the past.

They estimate 14 per cent more hogs in the next 12 months; 10 per cent more broilers; three per cent more beef cattle; five per cent more turkeys; four per cent more sheep; three per cent more laying chickens; two per cent fewer dairy cows; four per cent fewer horses and mules; six per cent fewer other chickens raised for flock replacements.

The 1958-59 rate of feeding grains, oil seed meals and other concentrates will be 130,000,000 tons. Supplies of 186,000,000 tons of these feedstuffs will be available. This is an excess of 14 per cent.

The 1958 fall pig crop should be 15 per cent above last year. The 1959 spring pig production should be up 14 per cent.

Hogs were unevenly 25 to 75

Alvin Lakey Serves At San Diego Base

Alvin Lakey, airman in the U.S. Navy, of Route 2, Hamlin, is now serving at the North Island Naval Air Station at San Diego, California, according to a release to The Herald from that base.

Young Lakey will be stationed at the California base for several weeks before reassignment to a specialist school for further indoctrination.

—both experienced and excellent shots—to try it out with live ammunition.

A question which has plagued movie producers, Western actors and many devotees of sagebrush cinema for many years — how many shots are required to kill a man in a close quarter gun fight — has been resolved.

Immediate concern of United Artists Producer Walter Mirisch was a sequence in "Man of the West" in color and cinemascopic which plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater through United Artists release, calling for Royal Dano to fire three shots at Gary Cooper inside a bank, missing him each time.

"We discovered the closer to the eye the gun is held the deadlier the aim," said Mirisch. "The closer to the hip the worse the aim, but hip or not, it always required more than one shot."

Quick Draw Tests Determine Movie Shooting Enigma

Rev. Edmund W. Robb, pastor and John C. Bryant, lay leader of the First Methodist Church were in Waco Wednesday to attend a directors' meeting at the Methodist Orphans Home.

A man size target was set up against a hill adjacent to the "Man of the West" set at Red Rock Canyon, and agitated by means of a rope. After a big draw from 20 feet Dano missed his fourth and made a "kill" shot on his fifth.

"We discovered the closer to the eye the gun is held the deadlier the aim," said Mirisch. "The closer to the hip the worse the aim, but hip or not, it always required more than one shot."

Hamlin Junior High School's Mighty Mice gridders go next Tuesday to Haskell for a return game with the Junior Indians. Hamlin won the first game from the Haskell lads 26 to 6. Game time will be 7:00 o'clock.

Haskell will be trying for its first win of the season. They lost to Vernon 12 to 0, Hamlin 26 to 0, Anson 12 to 8 and Anson 28 to 6.

Chryslers for 1959 Offer Economy And Other Assets

Chrysler cars for 1959, with a new series of Golden Lion V-8 engines, went on display in Hamlin last week by Prewit Motors and in dealer showrooms all over the country.

The new models have major styling changes, including new front and rear designs, side trim and roof styling. New optional features include front swivel seats, an electronic rear view mirror, an automatic headlight beam changer, extra large super soft cushion tires carrying 16 pounds air pressure and rear air suspension for automatic leveling.

C. E. Briggs, Chrysler Corporation vice president and general manager of the Chrysler and Imperial division, said the emphasis in the design and styling of 1959 models was on functional improvements which contribute to agility and handling ease of the car on the road, and on economy, safety and passenger comfort.

He said the new Golden Lion engines, although larger in displacement and with greater rated horsepower, will perform as economically as the engines they replace. He recalled that Chrysler engines took top honors in competitive western economy runs last spring and in previous years.

Low numerical axle ratios throughout the line, a reduction in engine weight and extensive use of aluminum in both trim and functional parts, he said, contributed to economical operation
